

SCRIPTURE READING - Mark 12:1-12 (NIV)

Jesus then began to speak to them in parables: "A man planted a vineyard. He put a wall around it, dug a pit for the winepress and built a watchtower. Then he rented the vineyard to some farmers and moved to another place. 2 At harvest time he sent a servant to the tenants to collect from them some of the fruit of the vineyard. 3 But they seized him, beat him and sent him away empty-handed. 4 Then he sent another servant to them; they struck this man on the head and treated him shamefully. 5 He sent still another, and that one they killed. He sent many others; some of them they beat, others they killed. 6 "He had one left to send, a son, whom he loved. He sent him last of all, saying, 'They will respect my son.' 7 "But the tenants said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.' 8 So they took him and killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard. 9 "What then will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and kill those tenants and give the vineyard to others. 10 Haven't you read this passage of Scripture: "'The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; 11 the Lord has done this, and it is marvelous in our eyes' [a]?" 12 Then the chief priests, the teachers of the law and the elders looked for a way to arrest him because they knew he had spoken the parable against them. But they were afraid of the crowd; so they left him and went away.

9:00 Breakthrough Prayer

All-knowing Lord, we come to you humbly, acknowledging our lack of wisdom for your word says that you will give it freely to those who ask. We thank you for your eternal truths to guide us day by day. Most of all, we thank you for the living Word, Jesus, and the sureness of his presence.

May we seek your wisdom above that of the world, for yours is peaceable, gentle, open to reason, full of mercy and good fruits, impartial and sincere. Fill our hearts daily with a hunger to know you and your will better. May we be shaped and molded by your teaching so that your thoughts may be our thoughts, and your ways our ways - that we may serve your kingdom and our neighbors better.

Amen.
