

SCRIPTURE READING: John 13:1-17 (NIV).

13 It was just before the Passover Festival. Jesus knew that the hour had come for him to leave this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end.
2 The evening meal was in progress, and the devil had already prompted Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, to betray Jesus. 3 Jesus knew that the Father had put all things under his power, and that he had come from God and was returning to God; 4 so he got up from the meal, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around his waist. 5 After that, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped around him. 6 He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?" 7 Jesus replied, "You do not realize now what I am doing, but later you will understand." 8 "No," said Peter, "you shall never wash my feet." Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no part with me." 9 "Then, Lord," Simon Peter replied, "not just my feet but my hands and my head as well!" 10 Jesus answered, "Those who have had a bath need only to wash their feet; their whole body is clean. And you are clean, though not every one of you." 11 For he knew who was going to betray him, and that was why he said not every one was clean. 12 When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his place. "Do you understand what I have done for you?" he asked them. 13 "You call me 'Teacher' and 'Lord,' and rightly so, for that is what I am. 14 Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet. 15 I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you. 16 Very truly I tell you, no servant is greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. 17 Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them.

Do no harm. Do good. Stay in love with God.

-John Wesley

Breakthrough Prayer for Holy Week

Lord Jesus, This Holy Week, we come not with perfect faith, but with open hearts.

We come with our doubts, our weariness, our need—believing You meet us right where we are. Break through the noise of our routines. Break through the walls we've built—of fear, pride, and pain. Break through the lies that tell us we are too far gone, too broken to be transformed. As You were faithful to the end, teach us to trust in Your love that never fails. Let this week not just be a memory, but a moment of awakening. Awaken our hearts to Your presence. Awaken our souls to Your purpose. Awaken our lives to Your resurrection power. Break through, O God, and do what only You can do. In the name of Jesus, our Savior and Risen King, Amen.

Greeting and Opening Prayer

Worship Song

(The Faith We Sing Hymnal) #2268 “As We Gather At Your Table”

Call to Worship

L: On this holy night, we gather to remember the love that led Jesus to serve. Before the feast, before the cross—He knelt and washed the feet of His friends.

P: Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end.

L: “Do you understand what I have done for you?” Jesus asked.
The Lord and Teacher, took the role of a servant.

P: He calls us to do the same—to love one another as He has loved us.

L: Come, let us follow His example. Let us worship in humility, in love, and in remembrance.

All: We come to the table, we come to the basin, we come to the Savior who serves. Let us worship Christ, our Lord and Servant King.

Worship Series: Holy Week (Maundy Thursday)

Holy Communion: Maundy Thursday Liturgy - Modern Version
(words will be on the screen)

We believe in an open communion table - all are welcome to come and receive the bread and the cup. You may kneel at the altar railing for a time or prayer if you wish. If you feel for any reason you cannot take communion, you are still welcome to the table, cross your arms over your chest and we will give you a special blessing.
