

Scripture Reading - 2 Corinthians 4:16-18 (NIV)

<sup>16</sup> Therefore we do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day. <sup>17</sup> For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. <sup>18</sup> So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen, since what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.

Do no harm. Do good. Stay in love with God.
-John Wesley

Breakthrough Prayer

Lord God, You created us for relationship, and one of the ways we live this out is in the family unit. We lift up all families to you, Lord. Where there has been division, bring unity. Where there is silence, stir communication. Where there has been pain, bring healing. We pray for the family to be a place of refuge and hope, and a people who advocate God's love and grace; a place where we build up bonds of peace, understanding, and compassion; a people who train up the next generation in the way they should go. Let our homes be places where Your presence dwells—safe havens full of laughter, truth, correction, and love. In the mighty name of Jesus, we pray. Amen.

For the Confessions and Pardon, and The Great Thanksgiving, you may follow along on pg. 12-13 in the United Methodist Hymnal. The words will also be on the screen. We believe that God’s grace is available to all. Therefore, we observe an open communion table. All are welcome to receive communion regardless of denominational differences. If you feel that you cannot receive communion for any reason, you may cross your arms over your chest, and receive a blessing.
