

Scripture Reading - Colossians 3:12-14 (NIV)

¹² Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. ¹³ Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. ¹⁴ And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity.

Do no harm. Do good. Stay in love with God.
-John Wesley

Breakthrough Prayer

Lord God, You created us for relationship, and one of the ways we live this out is in the family unit. We lift up all families to you, Lord. Where there has been division, bring unity. Where there is silence, stir communication. Where there has been pain, bring healing. We pray for the family to be a place of refuge and hope, and a people who advocate God's love and grace; a place where we build up bonds of peace, understanding, and compassion; a people who train up the next generation in the way they should go. Let our homes be places where Your presence dwells—safe havens full of laughter, truth, correction, and love. In the mighty name of Jesus, we pray. Amen.

Family Matters

If you are visiting us for the first time – WELCOME! We are so grateful to have you join us for worship. Please fill out a connect card that is in the pew and drop in the offering plate when it comes to you. Please check the bulletin insert for upcoming events and announcements. Worship will begin promptly at 9:00am. We ask that everyone find their seats before this time, turn their ringers off, and be in an attitude of praise and prayer as we turn our attention to worshipping God. Thank you!

Call to Worship

Leader: Come, beloved of God, to the place where we carry one another's burdens. Come to the fellowship where no one stands alone.

People: We come to share the load, to lift up the weary, and to walk with the brokenhearted.

Leader: As we bear one another’s burdens, we fulfill the law of Christ—The law of love, of grace, of mercy.

People: We come to worship the One who carried the cross for us—
And teaches us to carry each other with compassion and strength.

All: Let us worship the Lord who binds us together in love!
