

Scripture Reading - Luke 4:16-21 (NIV)

¹⁶ He went to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and on the Sabbath day he went into the synagogue, as was his custom. He stood up to read, ¹⁷ and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him. Unrolling it, he found the place where it is written: ¹⁸ "The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to set the oppressed free, ¹⁹ to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor."²⁰ Then he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant and sat down. The eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fastened on him. ²¹ He began by saying to them, "Today this scripture is fulfilled in your hearing."

Do no harm. Do good. Stay in love with God.

-John Wesley

Breakthrough Prayer

Lord of Heaven and Earth,

All creation affirms that You are the God that casts big dreams. Forgive us when we limit our vision to what we can accomplish in our own strength. Today, we ask for nothing less than God-sized dreams—dreams that reflect Your power, Your creativity, and Your glory. Awaken us to Your divine design for this church – not a human-made plan, but a Spirit-breathed blueprint that reflects Your will. Let us not be content with the familiar. Give us boldness to pursue the lost, the hurting, the overlooked, and the searching. Help us engage deeply—not just with the work, but with people.

Teach us to listen, to love, to serve, and to walk alongside others in grace and truth. Let relationships be the soil where transformation grows. Holy Spirit, activate the gifts and callings You've placed within each person here. Stir dormant faith to life. Breathe fresh wind into the sails of our mission. Lord, mobilize us as a unified body. Not spectators, but participants. Not passive, but passionate. Send us out as Your hands and feet, ready to serve, ready to sacrifice, ready to shine Your light wherever You lead. Break down every wall of doubt. Shatter every ceiling of limitation. Replace every "we can't" with "God will." Do in us what only You can do. Dream through us what only You can dream. And may the glory always belong to You.

In the name of Jesus Christ, we pray. Amen.

Call to Worship

Leader: Come, people of God, to the place where Jesus once stood— in the power of the Spirit, proclaiming good news.

People: We gather to hear the word of the Lord— a word that brings hope to the poor and freedom to the oppressed.

Leader: The Spirit of the Lord is upon us! We are called to partner with Christ, in bringing sight to the blind, setting the captives free, and proclaiming the year of the Lord’s favor.

People: We are the body of Christ—His hands and feet in the world.

Leader: This is not a word for some far-off people or time— it is fulfilled today, in our hearing, in our living, in our serving.

All: Let us worship the One who brings liberty and life! Let us answer the call to be His Church— a light to the broken, a voice for the voiceless, and bearers of the good news reaching to the ends of the earth!
